

To whom it may concern,

16 July 2007

PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V. would hereby like to inform the addressee of this letter that as of 1st September 2007 SRS Aromatics Ltd will cease to be PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V.'s exclusive distributor in the United Kingdom.

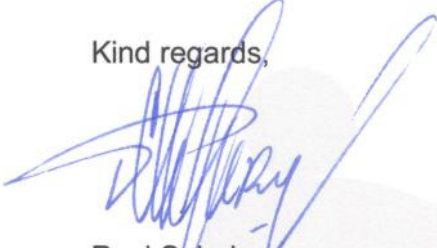

The reason for the termination of the distributorship is entirely due to PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V.'s revision of its business strategy planning and its aim to consolidate its pan-European sales activities. This decision is in no way related to SRS Aromatics Limited's performance as PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V.'s distributor.

PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V. would like to take this opportunity to confirm that SRS Aromatics Limited has been an excellent and unquestionably loyal distributor of its products within the United Kingdom over the past 14 years, having both increased sales of PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V.'s products annually whilst maintaining a high level of service to its customers. PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V. would like to thank SRS Aromatics Limited for all of its hard work, support and representation during the distributorship.

Please note that PFW Aroma Chemicals B.V. will approach the purchasers of its products in the near future through an alternative sales channel.

We also would like to wish SRS Aromatics Limited a successful future for their business in the United Kingdom, Europe and Internationally.

Kind regards,

Poul Spierings
(Managing Director)

and

André van den Anker
(Sales & Marketing Manager)
